

O Lord the Invisible

Text & Tune: Lionel Deimel Harmonization: Douglas Starr

1 O Lord the in - vis - i - ble, help us to know your 2 O Lord of com - pas - sion, help us to per - ceive af - 3 O Lord who gives com - fort in times of dis - tress and 4 O Lord our re - deem - er, who died on the tree, bring 5 O Lord who cre - at - ed us out of the clay, we 6 O Lord who e'er reigns in three Per - sons a - bove, the pres - ence a - mong us, wher - ev - er we go; em - flic - tions of oth - ers that we might re - lieve; re - bears our dark se - crets we're loathe to con - fess, teach oth - ers to know you and set their souls free; or - of - fer thanks - giv - ing to you eve - ry day; we bound - less and great, in - car - na - tion of love, all brace us as ser - vants and keep us from sin, that veal to us pov - er - ty, hun - ger, and pain, that us all our neigh - bors to love and to cheer, to dain us the mes - sen - gers of your good news: with wor - ship and praise you and ask you to hear the glo - ry is yours, sing the heav - en - ly host: praise we may show oth - ers your Spi - rit with - in.

 through us their vic - tims might suc - cor ob - tain.
 strength - en, en - cour - age, and shel - ter from fear.
 pur - pose and ar - dor and love us suf - fuse.
 prayers of your peo - ple on this trou - bled sphere.
 Fa - ther, praise Son, and all praise Ho - ly Ghost.

Refrain:

Help us and guide us and teach us your ways;

Chas - ten and chide us— you on - ly we praise. praise.

1-5 Final ending